- With the 2020 Census coming up, Supervisor is looking for candidates to be on the Complete Count Committee. This is an unpaid, volunteer committee. It begins when you sign up and runs through August of 2020. The committee plans and executes outreach plans to complete an accurate census count. Handouts available
- The 2020 Census will be hiring local assistants. Handouts available. To apply go to www.gsa.gov/fedrelay
- Code enforcement updates:
  - 174 Ash Street was foreclosed on October 1, 2018. It is now owned by Deutsche Bank.
  - 145 Capel in Roosevelt. The complaint has been closed. The aluminum cans have been removed from the property. The property is zoned C3, so the RV's and boats are allowed.

➤ 154 Pine Drive in Roosevelt. The owner lives in Glendale and his mail was not forwarded. Due to the delay caused by this Code Enforcement had to restart the process.

- Public Works update for Roosevelt area.
- George Collaco from ADOT responded that he has not heard a timeline when the rest area at Jakes Corner will be re-opening. He will pass on any information he receives regarding this.
